Applicant must successfully complete certification to receive the Certified Addictions Counselor (CAC) Level I License. Failure to complete the required certification within the appointment time subjects the incumbent to termination at the end of the 14-month period.

THIS VACANCY MAY BE USED TO FILL FUTURE VACANCIES.

Social Services Assistant, GS-186-07/8, (Multiple), Court Services & Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA), Community Justice Programs, Re-Entry and Sanctions Center (RSC), Washington, DC.

DUTIES: The incumbent performs duties as a substance abuse counselor in a residential Re-entry and Sanctions Center. Because the defendants and offenders reached at the RSC have extensive substance abuse histories, the RSC provides defendants and offenders with evaluation, counseling, treatment readiness, and referrals to treatment facilities. Under the general direction of the Unit Manager, the Social Services Assistant: conducts initial client intake and evaluations, performs preliminary screenings to identify behavioral types, reaction patterns, and symptoms of acute illness, alcoholism or drug-addiction in defendants and offenders, and assists the Unit Manager in maintaining security, safety and order. The incumbent facilitates psycho-educational modules that focus on substance abuse. The incumbent maintains accurate progress notes that detail defendants'/offenders' participation and progress in RSC programs and activities. The incumbent provides technical support to RSC case managers and staff by preparing reports, forms, and a variety of referral and case management documents. The incumbent assists in developing substance abuse education seminars and workshops, makes referrals that address defendants'/offenders' medical or program needs, and participates in the group and/or individual counseling of defendants and offenders. The incumbent participates in clinical data collection for research activities. Performs other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS: Graduate education or an internship meets the specialized experience required above the GS-5 only in those instances where it is directly related to the work of the position. One full year of graduate education meets the requirements for the GS-7, OR the applicant must have 1 year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level. Specialized experience is experience in or directly related to the position to be filled and which has equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills and abilities (KSAs) to successfully perform the duties of the position. For the GS-7 level, specialized experience includes performing preliminary screening of offenders/defendants to identify symptoms of acutely ill alcoholic or drug-addicted offenders/defendants, and responding to their needs by securing appropriate medical services. Specialized experience also includes providing basic technical support by preparing reports, plans, forms, and a variety of referral and assessment documents for use by Case Managers and other RSC staff. Performs preliminary analysis of information and identifies problems like inconsistencies, unsubstantiated reports, invalid data, etc. For the GS-8 level, specialized experience is experience delivering psycho-educational modules that focus on substance abuse and substance abuse treatment readiness. Specialized experience also includes assisting senior counselors and RSC staff in developing substance abuse education seminars and workshops.

EVALUATION METHODS: Applicants will be evaluated according to the extent and quality of their experience, education and training. If you meet the basic qualification requirements, your application/resume will be evaluated against the KSAs required for this position. This evaluation determines which candidates will be referred to the selecting official for final consideration. This position is contingent upon completion of a 12-month certification process upon the start of the appointment. Applicant must successfully complete certification to receive their CAC Level I License. Failure to complete the required certification within the appointment time subjects the incumbent to termination at the end of the 14-month period.
